Year of Establishment	1972

Birzeit University [BZU] is Palestine's first independent not-for-profit institution of higher education governed by an autonomous Board of Trustees. It embodies a success story, inspirational to all Palestinians. Since 1972, BZU has grown to become a leading university in the Middle East, on par with the very best. The university is committed to maintaining excellence in teaching and learning and advancing knowledge through scientific research and civic engagement. Our distinguished faculty combine scholarship and professional experience as former officials, diplomats, professionals, researchers, and scientists. Our students come from diverse backgrounds made possible by the university's commitment to providing equal opportunities for deserving individuals.

Birzeit University comprises 9 faculties offering 108 academic programs (72 bachelor programs, 32 master programs, 1 PhD program, 2 diploma programs, and one program for foreign students). Birzeit is also home to 11 institutes and centers that support community-oriented programs geared toward training, capacity building, research, and sustainable development in Palestine.
