

An Introduction to Global Health and Its Relevance to Palestine

Training course Program

Monday, July 10th – Globalization and the social and political determination of health (Day 1)

1. Introduction: the need for a global vision (9-11 am)
2. Coffee break: (11-11:15 am)
3. Health in an unequal world (11:15- 1:15pm)
4. Coffee break (1:15-1:30 pm)
5. The social and political determinants of health (1:30-3:15pm)
6. Lunch: 3:15

Tuesday, July 11th – Who rules global health? (Day 2)

1. Global governance of health (+video) (9-11 am)
2. Coffee break: (11-11:15 am)
3. Free trade agreements and health (11:15- 1:15pm)
4. Coffee break (1:15-1:30 pm)
5. Health and the globalization of food (1:30-3:15pm)
6. Lunch: 3:15

Wednesday, July 12th – The political economy of human rights and the right to health (Day 3)

1. Globalization, health and human rights (9-11 am)
2. Coffee break: (11-11:15 am)
3. Economic crisis and the right to health (11:15- 1:15pm)
4. Coffee break (1:15-1:30 pm)
5. Globalization, health and forced migration (1:30-3:15pm)
6. Lunch: 3:15

Thursday, July 13th – Globalization, the politics of aid and final discussion (Day 4)

1. Globalization, health and international assistance (9-11 am)
2. Coffee break: (11-11:15 am)
3. The political ecology of health (the case of Ebola epidemic) (11:15- 1:15pm)
4. Coffee break (1:15-1:30 pm)
5. Concluding observations and discussion on Globalization and the Health of the Palestinians (1:30-3:15pm)
6. Lunch: 3:15