Notes:
1. The program mission, goals, and outcomes are found in the program’s specification document that was prepared by the program last semester.
2. All the courses within the program must be delegated to instructors so that system at the end of step four must include all the program courses filled with their syllabi.
3. At this stage, all steps here are data insertion. Course assessment is performed using Word template and Excel grade calculation sheet.