International Programs Admission

Students from partner universities can apply to study for one semester at Birzeit University.

- In order to know if your university is a partner institution with Birzeit University, check with your university's international office, or see our Erasmus+ partners
- International students need a nomination letter from their sending university, in addition to submitting their CV, copy of their passport, proof of academic merit, and their required courses to the External Academic Relations Office external.relations@birzeit.edu
- Choose your academic courses and fill in the application form

Nominated students from partner universities have a tuition waiver if the cooperation agreement requires to, except for the Palestine and Arab Studies Program
